HAWAII'S NEW MOVE

She Is Looking to Another Form of Government.

PRELIMINARY STEPS TAKEN.

A Committee Appointed to Prepare an Act For the Holding of a Constitutional Convention—President Cleveland Sends the Latest Hawaiian Correspondence to Congress.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The president yesterday sent to congress the latest correspondence in relation to Hawaii, being three letters with enclosures from Minister Willis, covering a period from Feb. 10 to Feb. 25 inclusive. The important feature of the correspondence is a statement that steps have been taken to provide for a new constitution and new form of government for Hawaii.

The first letter is merely an acknowledgement of the receipt of dispatches.

The second letter under date of Honolulu, Feb. 14, describes the situation in Hawaii during the month as having been unusually quiet.

Minister Willis mentions the changes in the executive council, which have already been noted; the report that Mr. Dole will prepare a new constitution and says that a spirited contest is now in progress looking to the introduction of the "representative system," into the councils of the provisional government. In this connection he mentions a resolution passed at a massmeeting Feb. 13, favoring the enactment of a law increasing the membership of the advisory council from 14 to 24, the new members to be selected by the suffrages of loyal citizens in a manner to be hereafter provided.

The reasons for the demand are that the council is not now representative; that the legislative department is too compact and small; that it has been made objectionable by the action of retiring members in practically selecting their own successors; that the personnel has been changed, and that in these changes the mass of the supporters of the provisional government have had no voice.

The third and last letter is dated Honolulu, Feb. 15. It is as follows:

"At the regular meeting this afternoon of the government councils, Hon. F. M. Hatch read the report of the judiciary committee on the petition for the enlargement of the advisory council, recommending, as reported in the newspapers, that there be chosen delegates to sit with the council and to prepare a constitution for a permanent form of government. The report was adopted and a committee appointed by the president to prepare an act for the holding of the constitutional convention. At the same meeting Mr. Hatch was elected and took his seat as minister of foreign affairs.

"The massmeeting of the Chinese last night was very largely attended. The newspapers report an attendance of 3,000. Vigorous resolutions against the proposed legislation of the government were passed. I send newspaper clippings in regard to the above subject."

The clippings referred to show that the cabinet propose to make answer to the resolution adopted at the Annexation club massmeeting, looking to the enlargement of the council, believing, as Mr. Smith said, that they contained an intimation that the provisional government was not favorable to annexation.

In describing the Chinese massmeeting the newspapers say its tenor may be judged by the fact that the use of a man-of-war was more than hinted at. The statement was also made that the Chinese paid more taxes than any other class; that but for their Honolulu's trade would die and that they had only to unite and stand firm to gain their ends. The first speaker recommended that if the councils would not listen to the Chinese they should instruct the Chinese minister at Washington to write to the home government about their troubles.

The proposed act was denounced as worse than the Geary act. The act complained of is one proposing to require Chinese to take out a special license as a pre-requisite to conducting business in Hawaii.

JEWELRY STORE ROBBED.

One of the Men Captured and Is Believed to Be a Noted Criminal.

WICHITA, Kans., March 8.—At 6 o'clock yesterday evening two men entered Pierco's jewelry store, in Douglas avenue, one of the most public places in the city, and holding the proprietor up, proceeded to help themselves to diamonds and gold watches. A water-maker, who was working behind a high showcase unnoticed, coolly stole up to the front door and locked it and then turned on the burglar alarm.

The tingle of the alarm warned the robbers, and finding the door locked, they escaped with the booty by jumping through a plate-glass window. One of the robbers was caught in the pursuit and made a terrible fight. Valuable diamonds and necklaces were found hidden under his shirt, having slipped them down the back of his neck. He gave his name as John Locke. The police believe him to be a noted criminal. The other robber escaped.

Shot but Refuses to Talk.

DANVILLE, Ky., March 8.—Officers here were notified yesterday afternoon that Thomas Caldwell, living near town, had been shot. He was found to have a bullet hole in the abdomen and will probably die. He persistently refused to tell who shot him, but the neighbors say that he and his wife had an altercation in the morning and that she probably inflicted the wound.

A PACIFIC CABLE.

Shall It be Controlled by the United States or Some Other Nation?

WELLINGTON, N. Z., March 8.—The delegates who have been attending the inter-colonial postal and telegraph service have passed a resolution in favor of a Pacific cable to America, the route to be via Samoa, Faafu Island and Honolulu to Vancouver. It is said that this route is likely to be supported by the governments of the United States, of Germany, France, Great Britain and Canada.

We Are Interested.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Much interest was expressed at the Capitol concerning the news from Australia that the authorities there are moving to secure cable connections with the United States. The importance of this has been emphasized by occurrences of the past year in the Hawaiian Islands. There is now a proposition before congress looking to the establishment of such a line, but Senator Morgan, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, said he had no doubt this government would be willing to co-operate with the Australian authorities in its effort in this direction.

He said further: "I expect to see the Pacific ocean bisected with a cable. A line has been surveyed from our western coast to Hawaii, and has been found to be perfectly feasible, and there is little doubt that the conditions beyond are likewise good. A cable such as is proposed would be of great advantage to our commerce. We ought to lose no opportunity to control the business of the Pacific, and if we would take the proper steps we would secure the rapidly increasing trade of China and India, as well as that of the Pacific Islands."

He advanced the idea that the tariff bill ought to be so framed as to discriminate in favor of those countries and others using silver money, and thought if this was done, that with the Nicaragua canal built and a cable constructed, the United States would soon be able to take the bulk of the trade of these countries from Europe. Senator Sherman coincided with Senator Morgan as to the desirability of a Pacific cable, but said that the unsettled condition of affairs in Hawaii might have the effect of delaying its construction.

TARIFF BILL COMPLETED.

It Is Now Ready to Be Reported to the Senate Committee.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The sub-committee of the senate finance committee have at last completed the tariff bill and it is ready to be reported to the full committee.

The sugar schedule was the last thing to receive the attention of the committee, and the work was brought to a close by placing the figure at 1 cent a pound, or about that figure on sugar, showing 80 degrees fineness, according to the polariscope test, and increasing the amount gradually with the increase of the purity of the article.

It is known that the increase does not reach a quarter of a cent, but it can not be stated definitely just what it is.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—An exciting and interesting debate was precipitated in the senate by Mr. Harris' motion for the second reading of the seigniorage bill. This bill was opposed by Mr. Sherman, who moved its reference to the finance committee, and in the course of a strong speech in opposition to the bill, said that its object was to divert a trust fund from its legitimate purpose—a thing which in Ohio would be a penitentiary offense.

His motion was defeated, however, and the bill taken up as unfinished business, and almost before anyone was aware of what had happened, it passed its third reading and was on the point of passing the senate. Then its opponents recovered from their surprise and endeavored to prevent its passage, and on request of Senator Sherman it went over.

In the morning hour Mr. Morgan introduced a resolution calling on the president for information as to the occupancy of Bluefields, Nicaragua, by the British. This was agreed to.

The house bill appropriating $45,000 for saving the Kearsarge was also passed, as did the bill permitting General O. O. Howard to accept from the French government the decoration of Commander of the Legion of Honor.

ADMIRAL BENHAM COMING HOME.

It Is Believed That One of Our War Vets Will Soon Leave Brazil.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Admiral Benham has cabled the navy department from Rio that he transferred his flag yesterday from the New York to the San Francisco. The New York has been lying in Rio harbor about two weeks, and it is her turn to go outside for fresh air.

The fact that Admiral Benham, who retires the middle of next month, has not been already relieved in order to allow him to take the steamer for home via Europe, is a strong indication that he will soon start north directly for the United States, on one of our men-of-war, bringing the cadets attached to the fleet, who must come up for their graduating examinations early in May.

PENSIONS $151,000,000

Another Appropriation Bill Passes the House.

FIVE DAYS' DEBATE ENDED.

Commissioner Lochren's Action Furnished the Sole Topic of Discussion—All Amendments Save One Defeated—The Seigniorage Bill Nearly Passed in the Senate. Proceedings of the House and Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—After five days of debate the pension appropriation bill, carrying $151,000,000, was passed yesterday afternoon without division. Throughout the debate there had been no criticism of the amount carried by the bill, the debate being on the one hand confined to an assault on the manner in which the present commissioner of pensions had administered the office and his alleged unauthorized suspension of pensions, and, on the other, to a defense of the attempt of the commissioner to purge the rolls of those who were not entitled to a place upon them.

Yesterday there were several very spirited speeches, those by General Henderson of Iowa, Mr. O'Neil in closing the debate and ex-Speaker Grow. All the amendments to the bill, save one, that of Mr. Rickler, to make the reports of the examining surgeon open to the inspection of the applicant or his attorneys, were defeated. They all fell under points of order that they were not germane. The one which attracted most attention was that of Mr. Enloe to repeal a portion of the provision included in the act of last December to prevent the suspension of any pension except on 30 days' notice, so as to permit the suspension in case of plain prima facie evidence that the pensioner had secured his pension by forgery, perjury or other palpable fraud.

This amendment was offered at the suggestion of Commissioner Lochren himself, who, under the opinion of the attorney general declared that if the act of last December stood, over $500,000 would have to be paid out to suspended pensioners who were proven beyond all question not to be longer entitled to the pensions they had been drawing. Mr. Outhwaite, the chairman of the committee of the whole, however, ruled the amendment out on Mr. Martin's point of order that it was not germane.

SEIGNIORAGE BILL NEARLY PASSED.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—An exciting and interesting debate was precipitated in the senate by Mr. Harris' motion for the second reading of the seigniorage bill. This bill was opposed by Mr. Sherman, who moved its reference to the finance committee, and in the course of a strong speech in opposition to the bill, said that its object was to divert a trust fund from its legitimate purpose—a thing which in Ohio would be a penitentiary offense.

His motion was defeated, however, and the bill taken up as unfinished business, and almost before anyone was aware of what had happened, it passed its third reading and was on the point of passing the senate. Then its opponents recovered from their surprise and endeavored to prevent its passage, and on request of Senator Sherman it went over.

In the morning hour Mr. Morgan introduced a resolution calling on the president for information as to the occupancy of Bluefields, Nicaragua, by the British. This was agreed to.

The house bill appropriating $45,000 for saving the Kearsarge was also passed, as did the bill permitting General O. O. Howard to accept from the French government the decoration of Commander of the Legion of Honor.

ADMIRAL BENHAM COMING HOME.

It Is Believed That One of Our War Vets Will Soon Leave Brazil.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Admiral Benham has cabled the navy department from Rio that he transferred his flag yesterday from the New York to the San Francisco. The New York has been lying in Rio harbor about two weeks, and it is her turn to go outside for fresh air.

Only an Idle Threat.

ST. LOUIS, March 8.—Charles Weigman, a discharged employee of the Southern hotel, appeared in the rotunda of that hotel yesterday evening and asked the clerk for money that he said was still due him. On being refused Weigman demanded that $100 be given him immediately or he would blow up the hotel. This caused somewhat of a panic among the guests, which soon died out when Weigman was arrested. An examination of his pockets showed his threat to have been an idle one, as nothing of an explosive nature was found on him.

Finally Reached a Felon's Cell.

KANSAS CITY, March 8.—William T. Johnson, a well known young man of Kansas City, Kan., was found guilty of horse stealing by the jury in the criminal court at Independence yesterday afternoon. His punishment was fixed at two years in the penitentiary. Johnson is a son of the late James Johnson, an old citizen of Wyandotte, who died five years ago, leaving a large estate. In the last two years Johnson has squandered his share of the estate and his mother has spent thousands to save him from a felon's cell.

COMPROMISE EFFECTED.

Seven Thousand Men Go to Work in the Ohio Mines.

BELLAIRE, O., March 8.—At a conference of the United Mine Workers of America for the Sixth Ohio district, held at Bridgeport yesterday, State President John Nugent of Columbus presided. The operators met with the committee and discussed the wage question. As to the "entry work," "breaking through" and "turningroom" work a compromise was arrived at, leaving the two latter points at the old price, which is $1 and $1.40 per yard.

While entry work has been given $7 heretofore, the operators offered $3.60 per yard, and a compromise was effected on this point. The movement in this particular, stands good until May 1. All the mines in this district will go to work at once, giving employment to over 7,000 men.

HIS SECOND MURDER.

An Ex-Convict Kills His Wife With a Butcherknife.

COLUMBUS, O., March 8.—John Geschwilm, an ex-convict, murdered his wife Anna, in a railroad shanty in the eastern suburbs of this city last night. About five years ago Geschwilm murdered his brother in a quarrel and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

He had been working at the Panhandle shop but recently threw up his job, and his wife told him if he could not support her to go. He left, but returned yesterday evening and begged her to allow him to come back, but she was obdurate. The irate husband drew a butcherknife and stabbed his wife in the breast, even a portion of the handle being forced into the body. The woman died in a few minutes, and the murderer escaped.

TRYING TO ARBITRATE.

The Streetcar Troubles at Youngstown Still Unsettled.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 8.—The electric streetcar company made no effort to run their cars yesterday. Sixty men have been sworn in as deputy sheriffs and another attempt will soon be made to run cars. Manager Anderson of the streetcar company says he will run the cars if the militia has to be called out to protect the nonunion men.

W. D. Malone, president of the Ohio Street Railroad union, is here trying to effect a settlement by arbitration either through a local or state board. He is willing that the strikers shall return to work with the engineers' wages cut 25 cents per day until the arbitration committee decide one way or another.

CRANK WITH A GUN.

A Boston Alderman Shot at Five Times But Only Slightly Wounded.

BOSTON, March 8.—Alderman Joseph P. Lounsay of the West End was shot yesterday noon at the city hall by James Doonan, a young man living in the alderman's district. Doonan fired five shots, only one of which was effective, and struck the alderman in the leg, inflicting a painful but not a dangerous wound.

Doonan was arrested and locked up. He said that he had good reasons for his act, but would say nothing more. The police say that he was arrested not long ago for an attempt to murder a woman and that he is a crank. He has been a longer about the city hall.

Slaughter's Friends Ready to Slaughter.

RICHMOND, March 8.—News has just been received here that 75 of the friends of Slaughter, the man who was lynched a fortnight ago, at Sparta, N. C., are looking for the 15 men who executed him. The men who lynched Slaughter are dodging about in the country to avoid the vengeance of the thoroughly ironed friends of their victims. If the men who composed the mob are caught, they are almost sure to be riddled with bullets or possibly strung up to a tree. Slaughter was lynched for shooting down in cold blood a man at a wedding. The bride, interfering to save the man, was herself slightly injured.

Careless Workmen.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., March 8.—A terrific explosion occurred at 6 o'clock yesterday evening at the corner of Bennett avenue and Second street, causing rocks to fall in showers from First to Third streets. James Vaunling, a recent arrival from Larimer county, received a bad scalp wound from a falling piece of rock. A dozen buildings were damaged and a score of persons had narrow escapes from death. Workmen who caused the explosion by using an overcharge of gunpowder in excavating for a new building were arrested.

Dr. Merrick's Funeral.

DELaware, O., March 8.—The funeral of Rev. Dr. Frederick Merrick, ex-president of Ohio Wesleyan university, took place yesterday afternoon in the beautiful gray chapel of the university. The chapel was crowded, about 2,800 people being present. President J. W. Bashford was in charge. Rev. Dr. David Moore and Bishop J. M. Walden of Cincinnati, Rev. Dr. Jackson of Columbus and others from abroad spoke.

Business houses throughout the city are closed in respect of the fallen Christian hero.

Fire in a Negro Lodginghouse.

DETROIT, March 8.—Fire broke out at 2 o'clock this morning in a building on Cadillac square, the upper floors of which are occupied by about 40 negro lodgers. It started in the second story hallway and is believed to have been set fire. In the panic among the lodgers, Thomas Settle sprung from a third story window to the pavement. He was severely injured, but how badly is not known. The damage was light.

LONDON, March 8.—The explorer, Selous, who has just returned from South Africa, where he took part in the Matabelo war, has abandoned his proposed lecturing tour to America.

No Further Use for the Militia at Eagle, W. Va.

THE GATLING GUN SENT BACK.

Thirty-Three Strikers Have Already Been Arrested and a Number of Warrants Are Still Unserved—A Number of Coal Mines That Have Been Idle Are Now Resuming.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 8.—Major Banks, now in command of the three companies of military at Eagle, telegraphed the governor that he thought a portion of the troops should be removed as there is now no apparent need of their presence there. It is probable that they will be removed tomorrow.

It transpires that Hon. Galusha A. Grow's majority in Pennsylvania is not the largest ever given any candidate in that State. In 1854 Henry S. Mott, Democratic candidate for Canal Commissioner, received a majority of 190,743.

Within two weeks ninety per cent. of the coke ovens in the Connellsburg region will be fired up, giving employment to 6,000 men now idle. This will be more than have been in operation for three years. Br'er Davis, please make a note of this.

The New York World says that Congressman-elect Grow, of Pennsylvania, is on record as favoring tariff duties lower than those provided for in the Wilson bill. Can it be that this is one reason why he received such a majority a few days ago?

The Diamond Match Company paid over $1,200,000 dividends last year. It is one of the Republicans' protected infants. Not content with its enormous profits, it has recently been clamoring for Congress to increase its protection from 20 per cent to 35 per cent and threatens to reduce wages, unless granted its demands. Read elsewhere and see what it paid its employees last year when it pocketed over $1,200,000 profits.

A reduction of wages has just been made in the iron works of Cooper, Hewitt & Co., at Trenton, N. J. Mr. Hewitt, one of the proprietors, says in explanation that the reduction was made on account of losses suffered through the business depression, clearly traceable, he declares, to the McKinley bill. "The country could stand almost anything except a McKinley bill," he adds. "Ever since the bill was passed wages have decreased." Republican ranters continue to assert that a high tariff insures high wages. But Br'er Davis hasn't given any explanation yet of the thousands of strikes against reductions of wages in 1881 to 1885, under vaunted protective tariffs.

THEY ARE NEVER SATISFIED.

The BULLETIN recently mentioned the big dividends paid by the Diamond Match Company on its business last year. The quarterly dividends amounted to $862,500, and then at the annual meeting there was a special or extra dividend of $750,000, making the total profits for the year $1,612,500. This all happened during a year, too, when business depression laid its mark everywhere and the calamity howler claimed the counter.

While pondering over the above, just remember that this Diamond Match Company is protected by a tariff of 20 per cent. by the McKinley bill. Commenting on the above the Philadelphia Times says: "Yet this is the same Diamond company whose appeal for a 35 per cent. duty on matches was made furious with charges that unless the duty was increased they would be compelled to reduce wages and close their factories. It is this kind of clatter that makes the country tired when the truth turns on fair light of fact. Truth runs to figures as the brooks run to music."

The 15 per cent. increase of duty demanded would have increased the special dividend of $750,000 to one of $1,250,000, and the total investment return of $1,612,500, all clear profit and all highly protected, would have aggregated about $2,800,000. Under this enormous subsidy the Diamond company is really enabled to pay girls in its factories $3 to $5 a week for a day of twelve hours, and men can make from $1.60 to $2 a day. Reed's compensatory wage balance has a hard road to travel. The dividends do not."

Popular Rolla Hart

Fleming News: "Hon. R. K. Hart is proving himself one of the most devoted and energetic members of the present Legislature. He is always at his post and at work; and, as we contended when he was making his last race, his former experience now stands him in good stead, and enables him to work to advantage. He isn't doing much talking, but is keeping everlastingly at work, and it is safe to predict that all matters within the jurisdiction of the committee in which he has membership, will have been acted upon when the session closes. No man in the House is more capable, and no man is making a better record than is the member from Fleming, and whatever may be accomplished in this short session will be to the zeal and energy of no one member more than Mr. Hart, and if all were like him, or would emulate his example, there'd be little unfinished business when the session closes."

She enters the Augusta, Ripley and Maysville trade, leaving Augusta at 7 a. m. and 1 p. m., returning, leaving Maysville at 10 a. m. and 6 p. m. Captain Taylor says he has come to stay."

The C. and O.'s Train Record.

The Chesapeake and Ohio train record for the month of February is up to the standard. BUSINESS OUTLOOK BRIGHTENING.

Henry Clews, the New York Financier, Says There Has Been a Marked Improvement.

Henry Clews, the New York financier and banker, in his weekly letter, says:

"There is an unmistakable improvement in the tone and volume of general trade. That recovery has been coming slowly and almost imperceptibly ever since the opening of the year; but it is now perceived to be an established fact and finds expression in a diminution of complaint and in a more confident feeling and freer buying. This is conspicuously the case in the dry goods trade, which is largely representative of most other trades, and in which complaint has been most general. In that department, prices have settled down to a reduction averaging 10 to 12 per cent. compared with a year ago, on cotton goods, and 10 to 20 per cent. on woolen and worsted goods; and on this basis of prices distributors have evidently become willing to buy. It is to be remembered that the spring trade of last year was unusually active, and comparisons with that period must make allowance for that fact."

"The fall in prices of course reduces the volume of business when measured by values, but it is doubtful if the volume, as estimated by quantity, now shows any important decline from average years; this being especially the case with respect to cotton goods, while the showing on wool fabrics may be somewhat less favorable.

"In the grocery trade the conditions are about the same as in dry goods, the jobbing sales being about equal in quantity to those of a year ago, while prices are 10 and 15 per cent. lower, and collections reasonably satisfactory. In the iron trade largely increased business could be done if there were greater harmony among manufacturers about prices, which are being held up with a persistency which the situation does not seem to justify, and this prevents buyers of railroad and structural iron and steel from operating. These are plain indications that the worst stage of the business depression has gone by, and that we have certainly entered upon a period of recovery which only needs the end of tariff legislation in order to its developing into an established recovery in the general trade of the country."

At the M. E. Church, South.

The congregation at both services at the M. E. Church, South, yesterday were large and the exercises especially helpful to Christians.

Rev. H. G. Henderson will preach at both services to-day, but will return to his home at Frankfort to-morrow, the duties of his own charge demanding his attention. This is the third time he has assisted in a revival meeting at this church, but with each coming he has impressed the people more favorably with his extraordinary ability as a preacher and his consecration to the work of the ministry.

The meeting will be continued this week by the pastor, assisted by Professor Fogg. The services to-day will be held at the usual hours—3 and 6:45 p. m. There will be a workers' conference at 6:30.

A YOUNG KENTUCKY ORATOR.

Although a Republican, He Makes a Splendid Argument in Favor of Democracy.

In an oratorical contest between Georgetown University of Washington City and the Columbian University, the former won. The tariff and the income tax was the subject. The Washington Post says: "The most enthusiastic speech of the evening and the one most warmly received, was that of John W. Langley, of Kentucky, who closed for the affirmative. It was a very able exposition from a practical point of view, and contained enough of patriotic allusion to call forth wild cheers from the gallery, one of the most vociferously applauded statements being that there would be no evasion of the tax in the Blue Grass State, where they valued patriotism and personal probity at a higher rate than 2 per cent. on the dollar."

Mr. Langley is a young Republican from the Big Sandy valley, but he made a splendid Democratic argument.

"Our government," he said, "was founded to provide the greatest good for the greatest number. The tariff, he asserted, was not paid by the foreigner, but by the consumer, and, as a result, these least able to pay, pay the bulk of taxation, while the rich, who receive the greatest benefit, bear the least burden. He claimed that three-fourths of the business of our federal courts was confined to the settlement of the interests of capital, while our army and navy were maintained chiefly for the protection of property. In addition to its injustice, the present system of taxation tended to the concentration of wealth in the hands of the few, and that was dangerous under any circumstances. Thus to-day we are confronted with a condition as well as a theory—there is a deficiency in the treasury—our credit has been endangered. This emergency must be met, and no better solution of the problem appeared than the enactment of an income tax. If a tariff of reasonable size was placed upon imported articles, the internal revenue tax continued, and the income tax levied, then would the true theory of taxation be complied with, in that all would bear an equal share of the burdens of the government."

COMMERCIAL Gazette: "Ralph and Willie Little, nephews of John Duncan, of Aberdeen, O., were bitten by a dog supposed to be mad, a few days ago. In neither case did the mad stone kept by Dr. Wamsley stick, and they are supposed to be practically free from dread hydrophobia."

MONDAY a valuable trotting stallion, the property of Colonel Phil Bennett, of Fayette County, went mad, as the result of the bite of a mad dog two days before. The animal first showed something was wrong by chasing Colonel and Mrs. Bennett from the lot, and making a fight at the negro groom. He then began gnawing his leg, and tore all the flesh from the limb. The horse was killed.

WILLIE, the bright three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bliss, died yesterday of diphtheria, at the home of his parents in Cincinnati. A telegram at noon to Mr. Simon Nelson brought the sad news to relatives in this city. The remains will be interred at Cincinnati. Deceased was a grandson of Mr. L. Hill, of Forest avenue. Mr. Bliss' family is sadly afflicted, as his wife and eldest son are both ill.

"THE Phoenix," which Milton Nobles will present here at the opera house next Saturday night, was first seen in New York City in 1875. It introduced and popularized the catch phrase, "And the villain still pursued her." This expression, coupled with Mr. Nobles' quaint and humorous methods in comedy and character acting, have given wonderful vitality and almost phenomenal drawing powers to the play.

TRIM WALKING TOILETS.

They seem severely simple after the frills of the prevailing mode.

Serge and cheviot are the favorite materials for walking toilets this spring; then come the fancy weaves in light woolen fabrics and boucle effects. The various shades of green, brown and purple prevail, and black is also popular. Sleeves are cut in one piece from shoulder to wrist, or are made with one or more puffs extending from the shoulder to the elbow, but in all cases they are very tight around the forearm. Plain tailor made styles are still in vogue, and the vest has not declined in favor, while revers are seen on almost every description of bodice, from the morning jacket to the ball corsage.

Beside the galloons, passementerie and artistic buttons which are employed as trimming for street gowns, they are often rendered more elaborate and striking by the skillful introduction of a small quantity of fine brocade or richly colored velvet in the form of a vest or plastron. Fancy as well as plain velvets are thus used with excellent effect. Sometimes these brilliant adjuncts are cunningly contrived so that they are adjustable and may thereby serve their turn with several different gowns. Heavy black or white lace is also seen, laid in flat bands on the goods, or perhaps over a band of silk of prettily contrasting color, or it is gathered to form a bouffant corsage trimming.

The English do not seem to take as kindly to light and airy effects as do the Americans and the French. Redfern shows a spring design which seems severely simple after the frills and furbelows of the generally prevailing mode. It is made of fawn colored vignette, fine and of light weight. The bell skirt is plain except for the wide facing of vignette which is stitched on around the bottom and the four stitched straps of spinach green cloth which adorn the front just above the facing and are fastened down at the ends by fawn colored crocheted buttons. The bodice, which is extremely long and tight in the usual English style, has a rather short basque, and a strap of green cloth follows the waist line above each hip and is buttoned in place. The revers of the fawn colored corsage extend to the waist and display an open waistcoat of green cloth that parts over a green plastron which, with the standing collar, is embroidered with fawn colored cord. The bouffant sleeves have flaring cuffs of green cloth, and a green velvet toque completes the costume. JUDIC CHOLLET.

TOILETS OF CEREMONY.

Molre Leads in Popularity Both in the Plain and Striped Varieties.

Silk stuffs are much in vogue this spring for gowns intended for afternoon receptions and other occasions of ceremony where full dress is not admissible. Molre leads in popularity, of course, both in the plain and striped varieties, while satin, peau de soie and bengaline are also worn, but plain grosgrain silk seems to have entirely disappeared from the fashionable wardrobe. Elaborate costumes made of fine woolen goods and trimmed with richer materials are also seen, crepon being still favorites. Some new repp goods are shown, covered with small silk embroidered figures, but it is doubtful if they will be taken up very eagerly.

BROWN AND MAUVE PRINCESS COSTUME. There are a certain number of novelties put out every season that for some reason, good or bad, do not hit the fashionable fancy, and so the shelves of the shops are clogged with them.

There are occasionally, on the contrary, other novelties that at once spring so unexpectedly into popular favor that dealers find that their caution in buying has resulted in their stock of the goods running out during the very height of the demand for it. As it takes about six weeks to order and obtain goods from manufacturers in the other hemisphere, establishments are often timid about sending for another lot, fearing that by the time the second consignment arrives the popularity of the material will have waned.

Sleeves of different material from that of the gown are still seen, especially on elaborate toilets. Rich fabrics, of which a wide variety is shown this spring, are used for this purpose and are also employed for the bertha or the front of the corsage and occasionally to form a panel in the skirt. Fine brocades and damasks are thus utilized, and both plain and embroidered velvets, while the body of the gown is of silk or wool goods. A charming costume made of hazel nut brown drap de soie is cut in princess form and closes invisibly in front. The immense balloon sleeves, very tight below the elbow, are of mauve moire dotted with black. A tiny capote of black velvet accompanies the gown and is trimmed with Parma violets. JUDIC CHOLLET.

ROASTED THE JURY.

Gambling at the Roby Race Track Will Not Likely Be Suppressed.

CROWN POINT, Ind., March 8.—The Lake county grand jury, drawn a week ago Monday to investigate the Roby race track and pool-selling at that resort, was instructed at the time it was drawn that it would not be necessary for it to visit the resort, but to summon witnesses to give testimony upon the subject.

Tuesday the jury visited the resort, accompanied by Sheriff Frederick, and accepted the hospitality of the management. When the jury came before Judge Gillett yesterday, shortly after he had read a Chicago paper containing an account of the visit, his honor was wrathful and gave the jury a severe roasting.

It is altogether probable that few, if any, indictments will be returned against the gamblers by the present jury.

DEATH ENDS HIS IMPRISONMENT.

A Convict Dies in One Hour After Being Placed in the Penitentiary.

COLUMBUS, O., March 8.—William Weir, United States prisoner, convicted at Cleveland and sentenced to three years' imprisonment for counterfeiting, died under mysterious circumstances about an hour after he had been brought to the Ohio penitentiary yesterday afternoon.

Weir was in a stupor condition when he reached the prison. The officials at first thought he was intoxicated, but his sudden death and the statement of the United States marshal that Weir had taken several capsules containing powder aroused suspicion of suicide by poisoning, and a coroner's inquest has been ordered. Weir is aged about 55 and came to Cleveland from Indiana.

CHARGED WITH STEALING.

Dr. Park, Assistant Physician at the State Prison, Placed Under Arrest.

COLUMBUS, O., March 8.—Dr. James A. Park, assistant physician at the state prison, was arrested yesterday, by Detective Schlessinger, for stealing a $900 diamond pin from the bosom of the corpse of Henry Clute, a New York traveling man, who dropped dead here a week ago.

The arrest was made upon the affidavit of Grant Williams, an undertaker's assistant, who swears that he saw Park take the diamond out. When Clute's friends came on after the body, no trace of the diamond could be found. Park is deputy coroner, and viewed the remains in an official way.

ALMOST OVERPOWERED.

The Gaylord Mine Rescuers by the Awful Stench.

SCRANTON, Pa., March 8.—A special from Plymouth says the Gaylord mine rescuers Wednesday morning uncovered two more mine cars in the gangway.

Their work then proceeded more rapidly, but an hour later they were forced to quit the mine by reason of a fearful overpowering stench of decomposed flesh. It is believed the bodies of the 13 miners are now close at hand. Disinfectants were taken in, so that the air can be purified and the work continued.

W.H. Work for the Czar.

PETALUMA, Cal., March 8.—Thomas Murphy, the well known trainer and driver of trotting horses, has been appointed manager of the racing stables of the Czar of Russia, and with William Overholzer, assistant trainer, will leave San Francisco the 15th, and go thence to St. Petersburg.

Death of Mrs. Moonlight.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., March 8.—Mrs. Ellen E. Moonlight, wife of ex-Governor Moonlight, minister to Bolivia, died yesterday afternoon at her home in this city, after one day's illness. Colonel Moonlight has been telegraphed at New York. He expected to take a steamer for Bolivia Saturday.

JOLIET SCARED.

The Chicago Drainage Canal Brings a Flood.

ST. LOUIS, March 8.—A special to The Chronicle from Joliet, Ills., says: Although Joliet and vicinity had only a moderate rain Tuesday of a few hours, and with very little snow to melt, it caused a flood. Wednesday morning the canal overflowed its bank, the water standing a foot deep in machine shops on the bank, and overflowing adjacent lumberyards.

This condition of affairs has thoroughly frightened Joliet citizens. When Chicago's drainage canal is finished, even with a few hours' rain, nothing can save the entire valley south of Lockport from being inundated. What the consequences will be with the spring or fall freshets can be easily imagined. After the ditch is completed to the upper basin, the city remains to be provided for against the combined floods of the Desplaines valley and Chicago sewage.

RUN DOWN BY A TRAIN.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 8.—A southbound passenger train on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad, one mile south of Tallassee, ran down a buggy occupied by Mrs. G. W. Andrews and Mrs. Strong. Mrs. Strong had a leg broken, was internally injured and will die. Mrs. Andrews was seriously injured. The horse was instantly killed and the buggy smashed to pieces.

TROY'S TRAGEDY.

TROY, N. Y., March 8.—John Boland, charged with firing the shot that killed Robert Ross in Tuesday's election tragedy, was remanded without bail to await the coroner's verdict. William Ross, a brother of the murdered man, is in a critical condition, and his recovery is doubtful. John McGough, another wounded man, is not expected to survive. Whelton, the defeated candidate, will contest the election on the ground of extensive fraud and repeating.

FOUND FLOATING IN THE RIVER.

DETROIT, March 8.—Late yesterday afternoon the body of Frederick Swan, an insurance solicitor, was found floating in the river. His two coats and hat were found upon an adjacent wharf, and all appearances indicate suicide. Swan was once employed by the Michigan Mutual Life Insurance company. He had been discouraged and somewhat dissipated of late. He was about 60 years of age and had no relatives here so far as known.

CONTINENTAL CLERK LOCKED UP.

NEW YORK, March 8.—John C. Hall, for many years confidential clerk for Theodore Pabst & Company, importers of glass and chinaware at 20 Barclay street, is locked up in default of $10,000 bail, charged with misappropriating the sum of $55,369.26 of the firm's money, and thereby causing its assignment Jan. 30. KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
